

Joseph "Joe" Francis Jude Kallenbach

February 4, 1960 - June 26, 2020

Joseph (Joe) Francis Jude Kallenbach
Central, South Carolina

Joseph (Joe) Francis Jude Kallenbach, 60, of Central, SC went home to be with our Savior Jesus Christ June 26, 2020. He fought a courageous two-week battle after a massive heart attack.

He was the son of the late Leonard Oscar and Simonne Coté Kallenbach, the loving husband of Sharon B. Kallenbach and loving stepfather of Brandi Moser of Central and Jammi Moss of Seneca.

He was the youngest of six children. He leaves behind four sisters, Joy K. Dickard (Keith) of Liberty, Bonnie K. Sherbert (Ed) of Mauldin, Tana Crumb (Roger) of Easley and Dale Rigdon of Greenville. Also, sisters and brothers-in-laws, Joel and Beth Bagwell, Scott and Tammy McMannis and a mother-in-law that he loved to call Mom, Ida Bagwell, all of Pickens, SC.

He also leaves fifteen nieces and nephews, along with eighteen great-nieces and nephews. Joe deeply loved all of you very much.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents Leonard and Simonne Kallenbach; his older brother, Richard (Dikki) Charles Kallenbach; and nephew Ryan Matthew Crumb.

Joe was a wonderful husband and dedicated family man. He wanted everyone that he met to get saved and give their lives to Jesus. He loved sharing his testimony, because he wanted people to see what God had done in his life and what God will do for others.

Joe loved the Lord, his wife, family, friends, church, and his brothers and sisters in Christ. He loved to sing gospel music. He especially loved to sing in our church, Six Mile Baptist, led by Pastor Ray Longnecker. He loved to invite people to come and visit our church wherever we went.

One of Joe's favorite things that he loved to share was this... "I love my Lord Jesus Christ and I love my wife. If I can please both of them, I have done my job well."

Honey, you did an awesome job!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Joe at Easley High School. He would arrive to work in the afternoons and always say hello and share an encouraging word. Joe would do voice impressions that made us smile. He was a kind man who loved the Lord. Joe, I know you are at peace in heaven. We miss you! In a Little Caesars voice..."PIZZA-PIZZA"!!

“ So sorry to hear of Joey's passing. We grew up in the same neighborhood, and graduated together. In recent years, saw him in the Easley area, usually in Pete's restaurant. That's where he found out my husband, Tony, who also grew up in the neighborhood, was fighting Leukemia and had just come from a chemo treatment. He was so nice and encouraging to us both. Throughout the years he remained the same Joey all of us knew and loved. I never visit my mother and pass the Kallenbach house without thinking of Joey. Tony passed in June 2018, so I am sure him and Joey have met up in heaven talking about their younger days in the old neighborhood. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ So sorry to hear this. I knew Joey (that's what we called him) growing up. He lived in the same neighborhood as us. We also went to the same high school, Carolina High. Joey and his parents were always so nice and caring. I am so glad to hear how much he wanted everyone to know how much he loved the Lord. He was a fine person and I have alot of fond memories of he and his family. Lisa Rickard Flanagan

“ So sorry to hear this, I went to church with him at Concord Baptist for many years, he was certainly a dedicated Christian and and a very nice guy. Last time I saw him we were out eating in a restaurant and yes he could not say enough about his loving wife, and I didn't know who she was, but now I realize that I went to school with her, what a small world. Will be praying for all of the family.

“ Sorry Joy, and family, praying for you all

“ We are so thankful to have been blessed with Uncle Joe's presence in our lives. He always welcomed us with open arms and ALWAYS told us he loved us! I've NEVER heard Joe speak an ill word about ANYONE, even those who dishonored him time and time again. I am grateful for the time we spent celebrating Thanksgiving and Christmas as a family these past few years. He loved those times too Sharon, we love you and are praying for you as you face the weeks and months ahead. We're here for you anytime! You were Joe's everything
