“ I had the privilege of praying with Faye in her hospital bed a few days ago with her granddaughter and great granddaughter there giving her comfort.
She was the best friend of my sister Kaye Smith who had asked me to pray with her since Kaye could not because of a recent surgery..Although in pain, Faye broke into a big smile afterwards and said she was looking forward to going to Heaven and being pain free...I look forward to seeing her again....my wife Donna and offer our sincere condolences to Faye's family and friends as we pray for your peace, comfort, and encouragement.
