

Anne Donaldson Seabrook

October 16, 1947 - June 20, 2018

Anne Donaldson Seabrook, daughter of John and May Donaldson, beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, of Easley, SC, lost her battle with Parkinson's Disease and cancer on June 20, 2018 at the McCall Hospice House in Simpsonville, SC. Anne touched the lives, deeply, of all those she met. She took great pleasure in her life-long careers as a homemaker and sharing the ministry of her husband. People were often drawn to her inviting personality. Perfect strangers would come up and speak to her in a store, sharing their stories and receiving her kindness and love in return. Her passion for the outdoors and music were shared with her fellow church members by beautifying the church grounds and singing in the choir. She leaves behind her husband, best friend, and soulmate, Rev. John "Jay" G. Seabrook, Jr., her son, Sean Seabrook, her daughter, April Belcher, a granddaughter, Victoria Anne Fairchild, and granddogs Norman and Teegan. Although the earth has faded from Anne's eyes, her memory will live forever in the hearts of all the lives she touched.

A memorial service will be held at the chapel of The Foothills Presbyterian Community in Easley, SC, on Saturday, June 30, 2018, at two o'clock in the afternoon, followed by a family visitation and reception on the premises.

The family requests a memorial gift be made in memory of Anne Seabrook to one of the following organizations in lieu of flowers:

The McCall Hospice House of Greenville, 1836 West Georgia Road,
Simpsonville, SC 29680 www.hospicehousegc.org, or Parkinson's Foundation,

“ For some reason Jay and Anne Seabrook came into my mind a couple of days ago, and I wondered where they were and how they were doing. I decided to google their names and found this. Bobby and I knew them some 40 years ago when they came to Allendale to serve the Allendale Presbyterian Church. They were a young couple (perhaps just out of seminary) then, and our family came to love them very much. My father (Harry Jackson) loved to tease Anne and called her Little Bit because she was so petite and cute. She gave him a nickname, Jolly Green Giant.

Our sincerest condolences are with the family and just know that all the special memories will make you smile.

“ I had the pleasure of being your mom's nurse when she moved to the long term unit at the Foothills. I cherish the memories and talks that we had. She definitely took a piece of my heart. I am soooooo blessed to having cared for her , and meeting Jay, Sean and Norman. She will be sadly missed!

“ For over 20 years Anne Donaldson Seabrook, has been my dearest friend. Angel Anne loved to sing in the choir at St. Luke's Presbyterian Church.

My Angel friend Anne is singing in the Angel Choir today, And after singing she is fixing the Angles a great southern meal with sweet tea. And if she was out of sweet tea, she loved a glass coke-cola. I'm sure Angel Anne is having a Coke-Cola today.

And Angle Anne's favorite candy, York Peppermint Patty for a light desert. :)

Angel Anne loved her GMC Acadia. She would come and picked me up for PW Women's group when Angel Anne moved to Banana Drive, and we were ready for fun and fellowship.

One day, I will get to talk to my Angel Anne in heaven. Angel Anne was the dearest, sweetest kindness person that I ever met ,my Angel Anne moved to South Carolina, and we talked on the phone. Angel's love to talk. :)

Sing good Angel Anne. And one day I will sing with you in heaven. God Bless you Angel Anne
