“ So , so sorry to hear of Annette’s death. We met Annette as our mail carrier on Big Rock Lake Rd. when we first bought our house while still living in Houston. She became a good, kind precious friend. We hadn’t seen her since she left the post office until a few weeks ago when we saw her at the dry cleaners. What a reunion! She looked good, sounded great and was so sweet! We will be praying for peace and comfort for her family.
