“ The first time we met Granny was at the 2nd wedding of Donna and Alan in 2006. I could tell right away that she was a handful and a hoot all wrapped in one package. She was so much fun, but life took her to Connecticut and we didn't get to see her again until she moved back to SC with Donna a few years ago.

We loved her humor and she loved to flirt with Tommy and carry on with him. He'd ag her own and she loved that too. She'd just laugh and had a good time with him. Once we were visiting around July 4th and I had on a pair of red, white and blue earrings and she let me know right quick that she wanted those earrings. Donna tried to steer her away from the idea, but she wasn't going to give up until she got them. So, I took them off and gave them to her. She told Donna to put them in her room. I never saw her wear them, but I hope when she saw them that she always remembered me for that, if nothing else. She made us laugh and we always had a good time.

To say she will be missed is an understatement from Donna and Robb's perspective, but we will also miss her because we she made us feel like part of her family. I'm thankful that she isn't suffering anymore, but I'm sure gonna miss seeing her face, her smile and her beautiful white hair. When we would leave to go home, I'd always tell her "Granny, I'll see you next time" and she'd say "ok", but this time I get to tell her "Granny, I'll see you in Heaven & I love you" and I believe one day I will see her again.

Donna and Robb, though the days may be long and dreary for a while, keep holding on to God and one day you will see her again. Rest in peace Granny.

We love you,

“ Robb & Family, it is with deepest sympathy to hear of Annie's Homegoing. Releasing her to God, is comforting, knowing She is Home. As you move through these next days we are sending Prayers of comfort. Remembering Annie as the Sweet, Kind Lady she always was, as she shared all her Love for each and every member at Bountyland Baptist. She was a Blessing to us & now Annie has Placed Her Hands in Jesus' Hands. Rest and take extra care of yourself, as her shining personality will live on in your heart. Love Jackie & Linda
