“ I am so sorry we have lost Ben. We do know how much he suffered the last years of his life.

Some of my favorite memories of Ben are when my Mother brought Ben and some other nephews to visit us on Fort Campbell, Kentucky. She brought them up on the bus. They rode on the paddle boats and climbed on and in the helicopter in the park on base. We all had so much fun.

Ben was always such a sweet handsome person and he will be greatly missed.

I loved Ben so much and was proud to be his aunt.
