“ My mother Esther Phillips and I, Chris Phillips send our deepest sympathy to the Audrey Nalley family and say that we greatly appreciate the friendship from Audrey that Mom enjoyed while Mom, (Esther), was a roommate at Brookdale. It was a blessing to have known Audrey!

Thank you, Chris, for helping Audrey stay connected to Mrs. Esther. They cared for each other and you were kind to see that that friendship continued....right up to the end. Blessings to you and your family caring for your mom.

“ I loved and was blessed to be able to take Audrey to church and Sunday School. The last time I saw her was the Sunday before July 4th. She looked beautiful all decked out in red, white, and blue. She was the sweetest woman. I'm better for having known her.

Thank you, Kristi, for being so kind to Audrey and taking her to church. She was so happy you did that. I'm sure she looked beautiful; she always did!
Blessings in your ministry to others. Debbie Garrett, a sister
