

Barbara Jane Carney Brohm

January 12, 1944 - February 26, 2025

Barbara Jane Carney Brohm, 81, of Anderson, SC, passed away on February 26, 2025.

Born in Chicago, IL. She was the daughter of the late James and Myrtle Mudgett Carney.

She leaves behind her husband of sixty years, Robert Brohm, her four children: Susan Brohm of Anderson, James Brohm of Anderson, Brian (Tara) Brohm of Hartwell, GA. and Kathy (Joel) Waggoner, of Lawrenceville, GA. She also leaves behind her eight grandchildren: Jacklynn, Collin, Griffin, Nathan, Nathanael, Maple, Isaiah, and Charity, three great-grandchildren: Elizabeth, Amelia, and Eleanor, and numerous nephews and cousins.

Barbara obtained a master's in education; she was an elementary school educator for over thirty years as well as Sunday school teacher at their parish in Illinois. She attended St. Andrews Catholic Church in Clemson for over 20 years where she was also a member of the Women's Bible Study Group. Her favorite things to do were spending time with her family and friends, boating with her husband as her Captain, and traveling/vacationing all around the US and many countries.

She embodied 1 Corinthians 13: 1-7 better than humanly possible, and led by example. If you had the privilege to know her and watch her love on others, you were blessed, and you had the opportunity to gain experience of how to love well.

A Catholic Mass will be held 11:00AM Saturday, March 15, 2025, at St. Andrews Catholic Church, 209 Sloan Street, Clemson, SC 29631. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Knights of Columbus, Rite to Life Program, 112 East North Second Street, Seneca, SC 29678.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of my St. Thomas of Villanova Women's Club "sister" Barb. We were in the same guild for many years. Barb was a faith-filled woman with a beautiful soul. May memories of happier days sustain you in the days ahead. Joan McEnery Palartine IL

“ Thank you, God, for the gift of Jane in my life. Many years ago my sister Ilene introduced me to Jane, and we became forever friends. There were so many precious times shared -- special family celebrations, Santa visits, and adventurous camping trips. Our children especially were so much the center of our shared lives.

Jane's unwavering faith and love will sustain us thru these sad days.

“ I met Jane while pushing my newborn son down our block, and we became fast friends. Jane was a new mother herself, so we had much in common, and as years have passed, we still had much to share. She introduced herself to me as Jane, and it was years later when our children entered school, others called her Barbara. I then learned that her actual name was Barbara Jane yet her mother, husband, other family members and close friends only called her Jane. I took this as a sign that those she was truly connected to and cared about the most would always know her simply as Jane. How fortunate I have been to know and love her only as Jane.

Rest in peace, dear friend. Love, Ilene.

Barbara Jane was a ray of sunshine and smiles every time we met. She snail always hugged and I will miss those hugs. We shared the "teacher spirit" and connected socially and spiritually. When I went to the first Dinner for 8 after my husbands death and Barb and Bob were there, she made me feel so comfortable. Rest in eternal peace and blessings and prayers for Bob and the children.
