during this incredibly difficult time. There are no words that can truly ease the pain of losing someone you love so deeply, especially after such a hard fight with cancer. Margaret, please know that I’m holding you close in my thoughts and prayers. I hope you can find comfort in the love you shared, the memories you built together, and the many lives Allen touched along the way.

“ Praying and lifting each of you up to the Lord as you say goodbye to your husband, father, grandfather, and so many other titles Allen carried. He was a wonderful man. Even though this is a painful time, hold to the promise God gives each of us knowing that Allen knew Christ as his personal savior. Our time in this world is so small compared to the eternity Christ promises. Until we meet him again, may you feel the comfort and peace only Christ brings.
