“ Sorry for the loss in the McCory family. I'm sure her sisters are sad but she can now rest in peace. Thinking of all family members and wishing them way off.

Betty Ruth was one of my very favorite friends. She was very special and took so much pride in herself. Very loving and sweet. She was the type of lady that you just don't forget. After I moved to Atlanta, Ga. It was a treat to meet up with her when visiting my family. Have not seen her in a long time and it saddened my heart to get the news but she has just made heaven a little more beautiful. One day our class will have a class reunion in heaven With the prepared ones that prepared for that place called Heaven. My prayers goes to the family and friends that knew her best and will miss her most. God can always mend broken hearts.
