

Billy G Dickenson

March 10, 1949 - March 31, 2017

Billy Garnett Dickenson, 68, husband of Sandra Elaine Dickenson, went home to be with his Savior on March 31, 2017 following a brave battle with long-term illness. Born in Greenwood, South Carolina, he was the son of William and Edith Dickenson. Billy graduated from Carolina High School in 1967. He earned his associates degree from Greenville Technical College. He went on to teach at Clemson University and Greenville Technical College. He finished his career by working and later retiring from General Electric.

Billy was a steadfast Christian and man who dearly loved his family and country. Billy was a true guitarist who's style was similar to the late great Chet Atkins. He loved Country, Rock, and Gospel music. He also loved to draw and was a great cartoonist who could draw caricatures of just about anyone from memory. Billy had a passion for baseball and dedicated his time to supporting his favorite team, the Atlanta Braves.

Billy is survived by his devoted wife Sandra Dickenson and his three daughters Sheree (Mitchell) Ramey, Tammy (Trey) Tucker, and Paige (Russ) Bagwell. He loved his many grandchildren, Corey Ramey, Skyler Bagwell, Mac Churchwell, Savannah Bagwell, Laine Tucker, Logan Ramey, Leah Tucker, Tate Churchwell, and Rynn Bagwell. He is also survived by his brother Michael (Barbara) Dickenson and sister Polly Taylor. Billy also loved his sister-in-law and caregiver during his illness, Carolyn "Sarge" Kay.

Visitation will be Monday, April 3rd at 11:00AM at Hillcrest Mausoleum (2410 Gentry Memorial Hwy in Pickens, South Carolina) with Funeral to follow at 12:00 noon. His niece Nikki Dickenson and Reverend Wayne Powell will officiate the service.

He will be missed but never forgotten.
