I'm Heather his first cousin. I knew Bobby and his Mother Aunt Rose. I just found out he passed away. He was an only child. If I had known I would have been there for him. He is back with his Mother whom he loved and adore.

I am not making this up. I had no idea that he had passed away until I posted that. I hate that he was alone and had no family with him. I don't understand what you mean by someone knew about his other siblings. This is all a shock and new to me. I would never lie about anything like this. It's nothing to start any drama about. Especially when I love when passes away. I never knew his dad. Is that how y'all were siblings? I was only close to his mother. And his mother passed away some years back. And then a year later, her husband at the time passed away and a car wreck. So please I did not mean to upset you. I did the ancestry. And I'm finding out a lot of secrets that I did not know about in my family so please let me apologize to you. Is that how y'all were siblings I have in the same dad? And my aunt just never told me plus Bobby never said anything about me. Maybe he just wanted to keep it to himself and enjoy his time with y'all again I do apologize
