“ My memories of my brother Bob are many. I remember when we were very young. Dad made us a old fashion merry-go-round out of a piece of old telephone post he put it deep in the ground., put a long plank on the top with a big bolt in the center. and tacked a piece of wood on each end Two children would get on and hold on While a third one would push the plank in circles and duck when it was going fast. Well one day no one was on the merry-go round so I was just pushing it as fast as I could and Bob came walking down from the garden . intrigued with the little frog in his hand . walked right into the merry -go- round and it knocked him out. And that was the last of our merry -go -round..

“ 1 thing that stands out about my brother Bob is he loved peanut butter sandwiches, he kept the peanut butter and bread factory in business. But seriously he was a good, fun, and loving brother, I sure will miss him. Back when we lost Mom I wrote some poems about her and printed some out and gave to Bob. I went down to his house one day and he had those poems framed and hanging on his wall, that really touched my heart. I love you Bob and miss you very much.

Bob was a kind honest and family loving man. he loved his two son's and was very proud of the men they became and was as proud of his grandson.

Bob was a very fun loving person . I have many cherished memories of him growing up . He was one year younger then me. .He was the fourth child of twelve children In the picture above is the three brother's who were first to leave after mom and dad This picture was taken in 1968 and they have the cross between them. Gonna mis them but I know where they are.

BJ was one of the nicest guys. He was always friendly and usually had a joke to tell. He would phone to keep in touch, and I enjoyed hearing from him. I appreciated his friendship. We will meet again, BJ.
