“ Ray married my cousin Susan several years ago. As soon as they were married Ray fit right in. He always had a smile on his face. He was a friend as well as family and I always enjoyed being around him. He made Susan very happy, was an outstanding father and always consistent as a friend. Ray was a sincere person and always made you feel good when you were with him. I will miss Ray but he will live on through his family.

It's difficult to put into words what Ray meant to me. When I was doing church recycling or something else Ray would often appear and we would enjoy each other's company, I was always disappointed if he was too busy for a chat.

If I needed help with a task he would be there for me. I can't tell you how indebted I am to him and now I won't get the chance to repay him. I loved him more than a brother.
