“ Lots of memories when you and Ness were little and mean as could be lol always kept Aunt Pansy on her toes. I know you aren't suffering anymore, and I promise you I will keep fighting to do whatever possible to educate people on addiction, narc use, the stigma and getting this crap off the streets and the people pushing it in jail. #wedorecover #overdoseawareness Give Granny Reba and Aunt Pan a hug for me. Until we meet again cuzzo.

“ Our hearts are broken...💔 No words, only tears. I remember when Brandon was a little boy and would lay his mom's clothes out for her to wear to work, it was so sweet of him. 😊
I'll always remember his good looks and charm, it ran in his family! Brandi, please know that we love you and we're praying for God to comfort you and your family throughout the days, weeks, months and years as only He can. ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏 “ I'll love you forever. I can't imagine days, weeks, and years not hearing your voice or seeing your smile. You gave me two of the most precious gifts in this life. We had some many future plans with the kids. Special memories to be made. I feel so cheated out of this time with you to share the moments of watching out boys grow up. To see you get more gray hair which you swore to me you would be rocking with style... and maybe a beard. 😊 I'll hold all of our precious times together in my heart. Slow dancing in the kitchen when I was pregnant with Waylon. You holding the boys on each hip and fussing about stinky diapers. Your famous breakfast creations that Greyson and I were talking about just last night. I wish you didn't have to go. I will never be the same after losing you.
