“ Mommy i love you and miss you so much. You fought a great fight and the will power that you had to survive was not short of extraordinary. Saying goodbye to you is the hardest thing we have ever had to do. I would have taken your place a million times over. I don't know how to live in this world without you. But I guess I will find a way until I get to be with you again. Rest in peace and Fly high sweet mommy.
