“ Met Cap and Joan in 2013 just after I moved to SC from Kansas. Every Saturday morning we'd sit on the front porch of their store, drink coffee and chat. It was forever known as "Coffee Clatter". Tim Clark

Peggy I love this...you and Dan and Joan were the three people in my community that loved my little boy that we were fostering and adopted no matter what difficulties related to trauma that he was having he was just loved especially by captain Dan and Captain Dan was passionate about that boy right. I know he was passionate about many many other things as well but the passion and protective mess that he had towards my little boy who he truly loved and who Joan truly loved and I commented on top of your comment because you were the third person that supported us so much during our fostering and adoption of our great nephew now our son... He's nine now and when he found out that his sweet captain Dan had passed away the first thing he said is he wanted to go and tell everybody how he loved him no matter what when he felt scared... For each child from John Luke's background and experiences in his short life to feel that way I believe that is quite a testimony of a man
