“ Dear Lee - Many years have passed since our high school days and the bond we all had has endured time. So when I learned of Carolyn's passing I felt a tug on my heart. I considered you both good friends. My prayer is for God to fill you with great grace, mercy and His peace in the difficult days ahead. Bless you and all your family.

“ Lee, I am so very sorry that you have lost your dear wife Carolyn. I remember so well her personality and her soft, gentle nature. I know she must have been your greatest supporter and caretaker in the years of your serious health issues and would have been the most delighted that you did so well with that new heart. I have wondered how you two have gotten along in the years since I last saw you. Now I wish for you strength and wonderful memories as you grieve your loss. May God Bless you and keep you in his loving care.
