This may be an unusual thing for a Sister to comment on her very own Sister. The relationship that Catherine and I had was 'SPECIAL' We were not only Sisters, we were 'best' friends. We got along great. There was not a day that went by, that we talked to each every day. Sometimes two or three times each day. each night I laid down to rest, before I went to sleep, I would call Catherine to make sure that everything was good. To tell she and her daughter, Rhonda goodnight and that I  loved them both dearly. She would tell me "thank you Margaret ", and that she appreciated me calling. I miss those conversations that we had, the laughs, the good times that we shared. I really miss Catherine. I know she is in a "much" better place than we are, and I will see my dear and sweet Sister again. It will be a joyful reunion. I kissed her good-bye, and told you that I loved her.
