Charles Walter Locher, age 84, loving husband of 62 years to Barbara Sullivan Locher, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Wednesday, February 18, 2026, at his home, surrounded by his loving family.

Born on October 3, 1941, in Brownsville, Pennsylvania, Charles was the beloved son of the late Louis Locher and Bessie Hertzog Locher. He was a devoted and faithful member of Fairview Independent Baptist Church in Pickens, where he faithfully served as a deacon. His strong faith and deep love for his church and church family were evident to all who knew him. “ I was saddened to hear of Charles’ passing. I’m praying for grace for the family during this difficult time and in the days to come. I first met Charles in the 1990’s when I started going to his barber shop, Regency Barber Styling, in the old location on Mohawk Drive. We always had a good rapport. I was a longtime customer till Charles retired in 2002, and turned the shop over to Charlene. I would catch him from time to time working part time in the new shop. But we hadn’t spoken in many years. Charles encouraged me in my ministry, and I appreciated his good Christian testimony. Truly, “Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.” (Psalm 116:15) So, it’s not good bye my old friend, but till we meet again on the other side. Amen.
