“ One thing for sure , after having an opportunity to chat w Chester for a few minutes , if you didn't feel better, then it was your own fault. Anytime I ran into him I always left w a smile on my face that was not there before hand. He was no different than all of us, he had his bad days but you wldnt know it. And w hen I was walking away I was smiling . And if I turned to look at him he was still smiling. This was a gift! I never told him this but I hope he knows now how much he meant to so many!

“ I remember the last time you came to the house,we talked about how many years that we had known each other.We loved it when you came over.You was worried about wearing out your welcome.i will miss you and will miss seeing you in your chair that you would sit in when you came to the house.you will be missed by so many people.
