“ Christine i have a lot of memories i could share but right now it just hurts to much. I raised your from a baby. You was always curious about everything. You loved lizards and would stand and stare one down until you could catch it. You were the light of our lives you just didn't realize it. We will always love you baby girl. May God hold you in His arms until pa and I get there to hold you again. Your loving family that you left too soon.

“ I first met you when you were pregnant with Connie, we instantly started talking and I knew you'd be my friend from that moment through the good and the bad. You came out of your way to check on me a few months ago and didn't have to do so. I appreciate every little thing you've done for me. I will miss you sweet girl always and forever. Thank you for being there when I needed someone to confide in.. Rest easy baby girl..
