Thomas Cody Bowen
Pickens, South Carolina

Thomas Cody Bowen, 30, passed away on Sunday, May 31, 2020.

Survivors include his parents, Tommy R. Bowen and Jeannie Floyd Bowen of Pickens; a daughter, Savannah Grace Bowen of Pickens; godparents, Alan and Jackie Rampey of Pickens; godmother, Cooki Henderson of Greenville; and five special godsisters; Savannah, Sommer and Sophie Henderson, and, Jenna and Anna Garland Rampey.

Mr. Bowen was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Frank Floyd and Margaret H. Floyd, as well as his paternal grandparents, Guy Ray Bowen and Aileen Smith Bowen.

Cody was a member of Pickens Presbyterian Church in Pickens and was a unique and special friend to many. His smile affected everyone he met. Cody loved many things, including the Clemson Tigers and his Harley Davidson motorcycle; however, this love paled in comparison to the love and adoration he had for his daughter.

A memorial service to honor the life of Mr. Bowen will be held at a later date.

The family will be at the home of his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Tommy Bowen.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Bowen family.

“ Jeannie and Tommy I can't express enough how deeply sorry I am for the loss of your precious son. I didn't know Cody, but in reading all the comments here and on facebook, I can see why he was so loved and cared for by so many. Also, that he was a very sweet, caring, happy young man with a smile for everyone. When I heard the sad news, I immediately thought about his beautiful little daughter (that I had the joy of meeting when I saw y'all at the Senior Center for one of Ron Grant's shows). She is as beautiful as he was handsome and has a smile that will brighten anyone's day just as he has done. May God bless and comfort you all.

“ I met Cody a few years ago he was a wonderful selfless person who was always smiling. He could make anyone laugh and feel welcome to be around him. My husband and I rode motorcycles with him he always watched for our safety and the safety of other people. He would tell us story's of his child hood and his dad and bets they made or things they did together. He was always making jokes and making those around him smile. Cody was a one of a kind amazing person who could bring out the best in anyone and make you want follow his example and be a better kinder more loving person he will be truley missed and the world needs more people like him kind, selfless, loving.

“ Tommy and Jeannie, words cannot express the feeling that I have for you in dealing with the loss of Cody. I thought Cody was just a super guy! Anytime that I saw him out he would always take the time to walk over a talk. Always asked about our family, especially Houston. I would pass him on the road and he would always wave and have that smile on his face. My wife Lisa was side swiped a few weeks ago on the road in front of your house and she said when she left to come home, Cody had pulled in the upper drive and was walking down to check on her. Things like that are what I will always remember about Cody. From when I first met him while coaching him in rec football until the last time I saw him he was just a caring, sincere, people person! The world needs more like him. He will truly be missed. Take care and know we are here for you if we can ever help.

“ I will forever cherish the memories I was able to spend with Cody through our child and teenage years. All the hours on the ball fields we became close.

Cody was passionate with everything he involved himself with. He was so very genuine and truly cared for others.

To the Bowen family you are in our prayers and Cody's memory will live on. Anything I can do please feel free to reach out.

Love always,

“ My dearest Tommy and Jeannie. I so wish I could use some kind of magical words that would take your pain away, but we all know those words do not exist. So instead, I'm gonna share what helped Cass and I cope the loss of Max and Justin. It was having friends, like the both of you, letting us know our family was being prayed for daily. But honestly, it was Max's friends and Justin's friends, that kept them alive through their stories and telling us all about how our boys touched their lives somehow.

Well, I want you both to know that Cody helped with the loss of Max as much as anyone. Not only right after Max passed away, but everytime I saw him. We used to run into each other when we were both at Oconee and talk about life. Sometimes, he would come by the house and we would sit on the porch for hours about whatever was happening at that time. We would talk about Max as if he were still here. Watching Cody grow up gave us a glimpse as to what Max may have also been doing then.

Getting back to Oconee, I was always so impressed and proud at the same time as I watched him pour his heart and soul in to his work. No matter what his job was for the day, he gave it 200%. Just like he did on the ball field. I loved that kid. I loved his energy, his love for country music, his heart, his emotion, and most of all I loved that big bright smile that could turn a bad day into the best day ever.

I could go on and on. We wanted to let you both know if we could be there we would, but just know you are all in our prayer's and we're here always. God bless you both.

Love, Cass and Sherri
