“ I was such a lucky child to grow up knowing the love, hearing the laughter and having the support of my Aunt Con. Her compassion for people and animals was inspiring and she opened her heart to us all. Bobby, Kim and I were so fortunate to have spent such wonderful times with her and Uncle Don. And her mac n cheese casserole was legendary! We will miss her greatly and our hearts, thoughts and prayers are with you all. Carol, Bob and Kim Kalosy.

My husband and I were so blessed to work and know and love Connie and Don worth

Connie was a one-of-a-kind woman she stole your heart the minute you met her

She was very kind and compassionate and loved everybody. She was such a hard worker and wow what a fighter she was a true champion until the end. I hold her very close and dear to my heart once again I just feel so blessed to have ever known her and Don. I also got to know their daughter Lori throughout the years she has a lot like her mom and the other children are just as special also. I love you Connie with all of my heart and my love and prayers go out to Don and the family may God bless you. Love Ray and Becky Babb
