“ I remember back in the day we would all take you kids to the park and let you all play. We would walk to the store and each other's house. Those were the good old days. She would do anything for you no matter what it was. I know we are sister-in-laws but we seemed like sisters. I loved her then and still do. You will be missed dearly. Rest In Peace wild lady til we meet again! I know what you would say you got that right
