“ I’ll never forget the day I met Dan. I was sitting in a toastmasters meeting and Dan was sitting next to me. We were both eating our lunch and didn’t realize that there was a tie in our lives. A guy in his 20s about my age at the time said, “Man Tampa is a really neat city. I had a good time visiting and Ybor city was very lively.” I said to him Tampa is my home town. Dan chimed in Tampa is my hometown too. And Dan went on to say I went to Chamberlain High School. Then I said, I went there as well. Then I sized Dan up in my mind and thought to myself he must know my dad who played football for the only State champ team Chamberlain has ever had. I said my dad went there too and played on the state champ team. Folks in the room laughed at my comment thinking I was picking on Dan’s Age. Dan looked down at my name badge and saw Jason Buda and he said you must be Bill Buda’s son.... The rest is history. I worked with Dan at Jacobs up until he departed and learned a lot of life’s lessons from him. I used to say back then that Dan probably forgot about more things than I have ever known. I believe God sends us Angels in our lives to remind us that our journey is not some cosmic soup of coincidences. My heart goes out to Kathy and her lovely family. I pray that the Brazinskis take comfort that Dan is in glory with God. If anyone deserved a first class ticket it was him!

“ I remember Dan fondly as my classmate at USAFA. He was physically strong, especially his legs and was adept at sprinting against me. Moreover, he was a good man, and I could always rely on him as a friend and confidant. May he rest in peace with the angels and saints in heaven! I'll pray for him!

“ Charlie and I will cherish memories of the many times Dan and Kathy visited us over the past 10 years. We shared much laughter and deep conversations. Dan loved to debate gently and was always willing to listen to views of others. He was a kind, gentle, loving man devoted to God, his family, and friends. We will miss him sorely.
