“ I met you more than 20 years ago when you wanted a couple of computers built & that was my side business. Later I got a surprise crash-course in weaving from you, though I was from the other side of the Ellison plant, when the boss asked for a volunteer to work briefly in weave.

We haven't spoken in years, but I pray you are free from pain & that we will see each other again in heaven. God bless your entire family.

“ At your request God granted you not two weeks, but over one year extended life. The greatest decision you ever made was when you gave your heart to Jesus, and now you're with Him forever! Keep watching, we'll be joining you soon!
