“ David was one of the most sweetest men you could ever meet & call a dear honest friend. He was a great warrior for his Lord & Savior. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to so many people. Some was my parents & he knew we all were thankful for his kindness in their time of needing a ramp built for my homebound dad. There's so much I could say about David but, the testimony of the life he lived tells it all. George & I love you David & we will meet again one day on the streets of gold. RIP our Brother In Christ.
