“ Preacher Jack and Violet Connelly’. We loved David very much he helped us more than once on our cars. We talked about the mission trips we took. On Monday evening I spent about an hour with him, his biggest concern was that all go to heaven with him. I had the privilege to be his pastor for 30 years . Praying for the whole family.

“ There aren't enough words to express the sorrow that our family feel for the loss of Boon. My husband has known him for along time. Boon had gifts. The gift of automobile painting and repairs, a gift of friendship and loyalty. He was everyone's friend. He walked the walk and talked the talk. He lead by example. What kind of person who's very sick repairs a car the day before Christmas....Boon. And this needs to be said he was a fair man of his work, maybe to a fault. At 58 his Legacy was fulfilled. We just didn't have him long enough. His absence will be greatly felt. To his family we send our deepest sympathy and our greatest thanks for sharing him with all of us.
