“ Aunt D .... Deanna
I will always love and appreciate what you did for me through the years..
But The love you gave I'm very grateful for and I will always miss that loudmouth laugh which you know you had from time to time or you scream and holler at me when I'm not listening yeah it's hard I'm very happy that you're not suffering now 30 minutes from every day life it's time to sit back relax and enjoy dance around with mama...I love you always and you please until we meet again

“ To Deanna’s family:
I remember Deanna attending Jones Avenue as a child. She was a sweet girl.
