“ I never would have thought that when I first met Debbie as a Kindergartner (known as Ms Hilarious to some of us back then) nearly 30 years ago, that she would have such an impact on my life later in the future. She and Marty disciplined me in so many ways during my teenage and young adult years; and count them as one of God's many blessings in my life. My prayers and thoughts are with Marty, Wes, and the rest of the family during this time.

“ Debbie was such a sweet and kind person. We really enjoyed teaching together. My portable open up right across from kindergarten. We use to speak and laugh to each other all during the day. Have spoke to her a few times since retirement and we would end up laughing about those precious days. Prayers for the family 🙏
