“ I am lighting a candle in memory of my dear sister, Debra. And I choose purple because I remembered it is your favorite color. I am gonna miss you. I am so glad that we had gotten together and spent time in Georgia with our cousins during the loss of their son. And going a few weeks ago to pick up pecans. I will cherish those memories. I'll see you again some day. And my prayers are for Jimmy, Teresa, Jason and families that God will surround you all with Love, Peace & Comfort as only He can give.

“ So many memories in the past 32 years. You always called to check on me, my girls, and my grand kids. The one that stands out the most is letting my girls shift gears or actually drive home from the auction barn before they had a permit to drive. Of course I didn't find out until years later. You will be missed. Love you.
