“ Dear Denice, Debbie, Terry, and family,
We are sorry to hear of Derril's passing. He was a lovable, sweet, and comical man. He loved to make people laugh. We will miss him dearly. His smile, his laugh. We love you all .
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love Wayne and Darla +

We will never forget all the times we spent together. The last time he came to visit us, we talked, laughed and shared memories. We lived Uncle Derrill. And we are going to miss him coming to our house and just talking.

To Denice, Deborah and Terry and ALL the GRANDCHILDREN and Great GreatGrandChildren. I was BLESSED to have lived here in Pickens S.C. straight across the street from Derrill and Sandra and Denice and Deborah. It was GREAT times. Derrill and Sandra and My parents Mr. Marlin and Hazel Aiken might have disagreed at times over that being 3 girl's....lol But nonetheless I knew them before They ALL moved to Pickens. They were ALL not just friends we were more FAMILY. Derrill you will deeply be missed. I PRAY for Comfort and GOD'S loving arm's to reach around EACH one and bring them Peace during this Difficult time. Marlene Aiken Davis
