“ I'm sorry to say that I didn't know Dianne. I wish I had. My grandpa was Clarence Brooks, brother to Noah and Goss. Dianne's dad was my Grandpa's nephew and a first cousin to my Mother, Ruth Brooks Woods. I remember many times when I was a little girl, Uncle Noah and Aunt Decee riding up to Ariel Mill Village in Easley to visit with my Grandparents. I remember hearing all the names of the family, NC, JD, etc. but I don't think I remember actually seeing the sons. My Grandpa never drove and never had a car so most of the visits were to his house. Back then Anderson was a long way away from Ariel. But I remember how thrilled Grandpa would be when one of them would visit him. My heart goes out to the family. I will be praying for you that our Heavenly Father will wrap His loving arms around you and comfort you with His love, grace and mercy. My family sends their deepest sympathy. If my Mother was still alive she would be there visiting with you but she died several years ago from Dementia.

Respectfully,

Jean Woods Crenshaw, daughter of Ruth Brooks Woods

Ruth Brooks Woods, daughter of Clarence Brooks

Clarence Brooks, brother to Noah, Goss, and Dessie (I hope I have these names correct and didn't leave anyone out.)

“ Dianne and I were first cousins. Our dads were brothers. JD and NC. We spent many hours enjoying sleep-overs with our grandparents.

So many fond memories. Love you Janice and Mike.
