“ When I had nothing and nowhere to go Donna brought me into her and her dad's home and made Me family. She taught my son how to be a man and stand up for his self and what he believes in. Donna didn't have friends she had groupies many many of them that would follow her anywhere she went singing at. She was so talented and loving and would do anything to help anyone without judgement. The earth lost a angel when Donna died, I know she prob up there with her momma and daddy celebrating being together again. heavens gain was our loss. Keep watching over all the ones that love you and we will meet again my dear friend prayers and strength sent to all the family and friends much love and respect for you all. Love ya mydonna

“ Donna was a wonderful neighbor and friend. I've missed her these many weeks since she moved in with Debbie. So many times we chatted over the fence while Baby B. and my own dogs would run the fence line or just stand there barking at each other. And when my Sam was still alive, he was Donna's "buddy" as she would always call him. So. Many. Memories. I will always love and forever miss my dear friend and favorite neighbor.
