“ My heart is broken at the lost of my "bestie" friend. I will treasure all the memories we made together. You fought so hard, but the Lord needed you more than the ones you left behind. Fly high with the Angels, my friend.

“ You were a true friend for a very long time, I'm glad I got to see you the Tuesday before you passed, You were such a good person even the day you were sitting up on the edge of your bed happy plan and all the things you needed to do when you got home, I'm so thankful we got to have that last time together and you felt so good we laughed and all you could think about is how you wanted to cook Dave whatever favorite meal he wanted, I treasured you on earth and I'm sure your treasure in heaven. I will remember you always as I'm sure so many people will, Rest peacefully in heaven and I'm sure your breathing is so much easier there. Go rest high on that mountain I will meet you there one day Till we meet again .
