“ I know there are many of Steve’s classmates that can share great stories about Steve and his high school and football days, but my favorite memory will be one of our last conversations with Steve...Randy Bagwell, Chuck Powell, and I visited Steve and Shirley one Sunday afternoon in August this year. Steve was speaking of his imminent death...and told us why he could be so positive when discussing his own terminal event...he said, “because soon I will be closing my eyes here, and when I open them, I will looking into the eyes of my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.” There is a message for all of us in Steve’s words...
We celebrated with him!

“ I was blessed to have known Steve and his wonderful Mom and Aunt Gladys when I was growing up next door with the Smith girls....They treated me as one of their own and welcome me to alot of the Christmas Eve dinners over the years...I married one of Smith Boys 33 years ago and Steve taped our wedding and reception....he was the first one out to give me a kiss and a hug.....I will never forget it.....Love you all, Betty Smith
