“ I met this young man through my son Hunter Knight. He was a kind and always was a respectful young man and I took a liking to him right away. He made me smile when I'd arrive at my shop and see him. He'd just stop over and hang out with Hunter and help out when he could. I was blessed to have met him. I know he will be missed by myself, my family and all people that his kindness touched. RIP Si

“ We’re sure Si’s faith was as great as his height. He seemed to have a kind and gentle soul. Our younger son, Sam, always wondered why he couldn’t be as tall as Si. Our prayers and thoughts will be with you as we especially pray for your comfort and peace.

“ Si was the ultimate “working man.” As a child he had a rake in his hand cleaning up the fire pit at five acres and having “Bob the Builder” birthday parties at “R Lot. “ Scott and Melinda, I love you both and cannot fathom what you are going through. I’m holding you and Joanna in my heart and hoping that you will feel the peace and comfort that only come from Jesus Christ in the most difficult moments of life. Please take solace that Si touched many lives in his short lifetime. We have all been blessed by his presence. Love and blessings, Tara Porter

“ So was a fine young man, and he was family. He will be missed so much, my wife Connie and I loved to have him over with his parents to watch Clemson games. He was loved, and a joy to be around. I looked forward to following his career and had hoped to look in on his manufacturing site soon. We pray that God will soothe and comfort his parents and family, cool their grief, and assuage their pain with the knowledge that he was a fine son and human being.

I saw myself in Si every day we worked together, and his presence will permanently reside here at our plant in Phoenix. He was a wonderful human being, that brought a smile and level of charisma that's simply unmatched. He will forever be missed by us all, his work family, but we're thankful for the blessing of knowing him for as long as we did.
