

Emily J. Cronenwett "E.J."

February 18, 1927 - November 21, 2023

Emily J. Cronenwett "E.J."
Pickens, South Carolina

Emily J. Cronenwett "E.J.", 96, loving wife of the late Gene W. Cronenwett, passed away Tuesday, November 21, 2023, at her residence.

Born February 18, 1927, in Bellaire, Ohio, Emily was the daughter of the late Mack Snively and Martha Rodewig Snively. Mrs. Cronenwett graduated from Capital University. Emily was very loving and kind. She was a great musician, storyteller, and tireless children's choir director and string teacher. She taught high school strings in Marietta, Ohio and retired from Arcadia Elementary School where she taught music for 22 years. She was a Sunday School teacher and sang with the Chapel Choir in Columbus, Ohio. She was the best of all of us, a wonderful mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend.

Survivors include two sons, Dan Cronenwett (Teri) of Herriman, UT, and Drew Cronenwett (Janell) of Centerville, OH; a daughter, Celia Stockton (Harry) of Pickens, SC; grandchildren, Ruthe Robles (Jesse), David Cronenwett (Kate), Emily Keeling (Phil), Winston Cronenwett, Nathan Stockton, Joseph Stockton, and Janae Cronenwett; and great-grandchildren, Dominic, Aurora, Alexandra, Lauren Joy, and Graham.

In addition to her husband and parents, Mrs. Cronenwett was predeceased by a brother, Richard Snively.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Emily's honor may be made to College First Church of God by mailing 1100 North Main St, Findlay, OH 45840 or by calling (419) 422-7365.

Mountain View Funerals and Cremations - Pickens Chapel is serving the Cronenwett family.

“ Our class was so fortunate to have Mrs. Cronenwett as our elementary music teacher. I still remember meeting her the day we walked into her classroom for the first time...she was so welcoming!

My most memorable Christmas program was in 1st grade where I was a rolly polly snowball. Just last week one of our classmates sent a video singing the "Thanksgiving turkey on the backyard fence" song that she taught us. So many great memories!
