“ I knew EJ as a little girl. My parents bought land from his parents years ago. I meet him again not to many years ago at a Dr. Office I worked at. I was going to draw his blood. We got to talking and I didn't realize it was the EJ I knew. He was so polite. We talked about when he lived on the mountain, horses, fishing and great sales you can find at some places. It was good to see him years later. I know he will be missed. Praying for his family and friends.
