“ I didn't know Mr. Hamilton personally, but through the voice of my dear friend, Judy Aiken, I knew Lon and Tammie well. A dignified and very respected family, Judy often speaks about Lon and Tammie. I consider you to be my friends, and my deepest condolences go to you and your family. Sing beautifully, Lon. I know you will do well.

Sincerely,
Susan Pierce

I was so sorry to hear Pajo had passed. He had a kind heart, but life treated him unfairly. I know he is in a better place and is smiling down on his dear sons, whom I love very much. Rest In Peace, Pajo, I remember you singing to Johnny and Jason as babys and your kindness to me when I was pregnant and couldn't shovel. You made us laugh when you forgot to take off your bowling shoes and we were dancing. Even more, when you told us you weren't going back for your shoes because you liked those better. I know the next life will be kinder to you. God Bless You, my nephews now have an angel watching over them. Lorna

Lorna, Thank you for the kind words about Uncle Pajo. Your right he had such a kind heart and loved to make people laugh. I used to love listening to him sing, he had a talent for sure. He will be deeply missed. Mary Lou (one of his nieces)

Life did not treat him unfairly! This man ruined my life at the age of 11 years old. I'm 34 now and still suffer from the pain and scars that this man inflicted on my life as a child. Everyone can keep saying all of these nice things about "Pajo" but I personally know who he really was. These comments make me sick to my stomach and I don't feel a bit sorry for posting this!

Susan Coud apparently your uncle, even your father treated you the same way.....along with a few others that went to prison because of you, including your own mother. I find one common denominator here.....you. I'd check myself if i were you.

Susan Cloud, I can't believe that you had the nerve to post anything on my Uncle's obituary. If you ask me your the only one that ruined your life and you took many people down with you, unfortunately one of them was my Uncle. In my opinion you can't change a SLUT, once a SLUT always a SLUT. In the future I'd keep my comments to myself.

Mary Lou Widrick - October 31, 2017 at 10:17 AM

How dare you call me a SLUT. I was 10-11 years old. First of all Joel, my father was never accused of doing any wrong to me. My uncle pled guilty for hurting me, his 14 year old sister in law and there were accounts that his 3 year old daughter had been messed with. My own mother participated in assisting your uncle and family member in doing god awful things. I was an innocent young child and how could you say any different. Were you there? No! Obviously all of you were blind to who this man really was. Until you know the 100% facts you can keep your mouths shut. I don't have to keep my comments to myself for everything that I was put through. For your information I have never been a SLUT, I was a very abused and innocent little girl. You can stay blind all you want but I know the truth and what happened behind those walls. Who calls a 10 year old a slut. I just can't comprehend that. Why would I want to throw my mother in prison? I loved my mom. She is the one who turned her back on me. Probably the same person where most of your information came from. A grown woman who betrayed her own daughter in the worst possible way and told a bunch of lies on an innocent child to try and make herself and the "situation" look better. How sick are you people, really? You just believe what you want to believe and nothing will ever make you feel any different no matter how badly a young girl was hurt. It's sad, it really is. You can keep coming at me however you want, call me all the names that you want. I will never back down from the horrible abuse that I went through as a child. I will never stop telling my story to maybe help someone who has been through the same thing as I have and I will NEVER stop standing up for myself for the wrong that was done to me. I hope you all have a wonderful life believing in a false hope that's nothing but a lie!

I was expecting u to comment back eventually, your the one that started this bs on his obituary page. This is here for family and friends to leave a comment not for u to run your big mouth and spread your lies. I'm sure your story telling hasn't helped anyone, your nothing but a liar and you need to stay off this sight. Good Ridens To Bad Garbage

Mary Lou Widrick - November 29, 2017 at 03:53 PM

Mary Lou and Billy Jo I am so sorry that someone would do such a thing on an obituary page. It is too bad it can't be deleted. I just saw this some how are would have said something sooner. God Bless and don't let anyone spoil your good memories! Pajo, the family and Jason and Johnny don't deserve this!

Lorna Haralalka - April 26, 2018 at 01:25 PM

Sorry, are should be or! I can't correct.

Lorna Haralalka - April 26, 2018 at 01:26 PM

Lorna Haralalka, thank you for your kind words and yes I've tried deleting her post but can't. We all know Uncle Pajo was no saint but I'll never believe her lies, it's unfortunate that she was able to leave such post. Your right none of us deserve to be bothered with her lies and garbage. Love, Mary Lou

Mary Lou Widrick - April 26, 2018 at 07:54 PM

Uncle Pajo, I'm a day late but I've always thought your birthday was April 26 not the 25th. I just wanted to say Happy Birthday and I love you and always will. I miss u so much and can't believe your gone. So many happy memories with you when I was a little girl and growing up. I love u sooooo much.... 🍷🎂😭

Mary Lou Widrick - April 26, 2018 at 07:59 PM

Uncle Pajo, today marks a yr that you've been gone. I think of our connection we had when I was a little girl and as a teenager, so many memories and lots of love and laughs. I'll never completely understand why you did what you did but I will say I wasn't shocked. My love for you with always be there and the emptiness we all feel with you gone. I love you always, your niece Mary Lou

I've been thinking about you a lot the last few days. Remembering how close we was when I was little and how much you loved me. I wish I could've been there for you and maybe things would be different and you'd still be will us. I'm sorry and I love and miss you dearly. 💕😭
