

Frances Eleanor Baker Dickard

November 28, 1933 - June 7, 2021

Frances Eleanor Baker Dickard
Pickens, South Carolina

Frances Eleanor Baker Dickard, 87, wife of the late James Farrell Dickard, Sr. went home to be with the Lord on Monday, June 7, 2021 following a courageous battle with vascular dementia.

A daughter of the late Miles Lee and Lillian Looper Baker, Frances was born in Dacusville and lived her whole life in Pickens County.

Frances was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and sister who served her family with a selfless heart of love. She was an excellent cook, seamstress and caregiver. She was a member of Pickens First Baptist Church where she helped to initiate the Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Ministry.

Survivors include her three daughters, Kathy Ravan (Joe) of Easley, Carol Dickard of Pendleton, and Linda Few (Larry) of Six Mile; two sons, Jimmy Dickard (Georgia) of Pickens, and Bryan Dickard (Ginger) of Easley; 12 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Ruth Davis of Greenville, and Barbara Hawkins (Charles) of Travelers Rest; two brothers, Harry Baker (Kathryn) and Roy Baker (Carol), both of Easley.

In addition to her husband and parents, Mrs. Dickard was predeceased by her brother, James Baker.

A graveside service will be held at 11:00 am Wednesday June 09, 2021 at Hillcrest Memorial Park and will be officiated by Rev. Jeff Stewart. The family will gather after the service to visit with friends, family and loved ones.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Frances' honor may be made to Operation Christmas Child / Samaritan's Purse by mailing Samaritan's Purse, PO Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607 or by visiting their website at www.samaritan.org

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Dickard family.
