“ I met Fred Jackson at the senior center in Liberty South Carolina. He and a handful of other men were always playing pool when I was there volunteering. Fred was kind enough to take me in under his wing and teach me a lot about playing pool. remember him eyeballing to me where my next shot should be at when I played the other men lol. He even gave me a pool glove. This all meant so very much to me because my oldest boy whom I lost was a pool player, and I knew he would be proud of me for learning. Fred also loved to dance as most of you know, and I remember videoing him dancing with one of the ladies kim that worked there and he had on his tap shoes! And he always showed up for dancing at CEJs. He told me lots of chicken stories too.
He was a kind, gentle soul with lots of spark! And a lot of strength. Oh and don't forget the police video.lol
I danced with him about a month ago up in Pickens at the amphitheater to split shot band. He was having fun dancing as always. . Who could forget Fred.. not me. Glad to have known you Fred ...
