“ Gail was my beautician for years. She was àn excellent beautician, as well as a wonderful friend! I had not seen her in recent years, but I called her a few times since we didn't live near since she retired and health issues, as well as caring for my elderly mother were necessary to address. I never met Jessica in person, but I knew Tracy and Jerry. Gail was caring for her grandfather and working decades ago. She always had a sweet demeanor and was a loving and smart mother, wife, and friend!! I will miss her and her family has my sympathy as I pray for strength and comfort from God!!

“ Jerry, Tracey, Jessica and all the grandchildren, My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very sad time. I have so many memories of all the fun times we shared over the 12 years we were in school together... the sleepovers, the silly giggling and stories we shared when we were supposed to be sleeping..and so many more. Although we went our way after graduation, we always remained best friends. (I still have the letters she wrote me when she used to spend the summer in Brevard with her grandparents)
I loved Gail dearly and my heart is breaking with you, Jerry, I am so thankful you brought her to see me on my birthday. I knew that would probably be the last time I saw her and my last words to her were " I love you!" and I believe with all my heart she tried to say "I love you" to me. I'll cherish that memory as long as I live. May God comfort you as only He can. Love, Gayle Smith Cantrell
