“ Grandpa was an amazing grandpa he made me smile when i was down. he taught many people to look at the brightside instead of the dark. he always said “if you belive in yourself you will go far”.

“ I am sorry to hear about Glen's passing. To my knowledge none of his children know who I am, but, Glen and I go back a long way. I knew his grandpa, Bart and his mother Buelah and brother Jerry (we were about the same age) and many of you other relarives from the Gap Hill / Six Mile area. Glen was always friendly and helpful. I knew and saw him when he lived on Reece Mill Road. That was years ago. May the promises of God comfort you during these difficult days.

PS

Thank you for your kind words. I am Glens daughter-in-law; I'm married to his oldest son Allen Stephens. Glen was a wonderful man, we miss him deeply. Thank you again for writing about my father in law, and memories of his family. May God bless you.
