“ Dad, I don't even know where to start...but firstly saying thank you for being the best Dad a girl could ask for. Thank you for all the love you showed me my whole life and advice. You always knew how to fix anything and make me feel better about things. I have many memories with you I'll never forget from playing grocery store in the yard, to getting me a brownie and Mello Yello every day after school when you would pick me up, you riding the water boat with me at DollyWood and we got soaked, teaching me to fish at our lake house and many more I could go on forever. I'll cherish every single moment. You always knew how to make us all laugh for sure! I miss you and Mom so much and some days I don't know how to go on without you but I know some day I'll see you again. I love you both forever and I can't wait til the day I can run and hug both of you. Love your baby girl, Ashley

“ Glenn you will be missed. You and Evelyn was such a huge part of my childhood. You gave me first job with payment of a Big Mac. I had never had one before! You watched mine and Peter's ridiculous shows and shenanigans. You taught me to yodel. My prayers are with the whole family. Stand firm in Christ.

“ I love you & will miss you so much dad, but thankfully because of what you & Gods word taught me, I know this life is just a vapor compared to the time we will get to spend together for eternity & I can't wait for that day to come! What a glorious day that will be! You were the best & I am thankful for all the times we sat & studied things in the bible together. Plus all the sermons we watched from Pastor Perry Noble, Dr. David Jeremiah, Pastor Don Wilton, Pastor John McKnight, & my favorite pastor, Pastor Glenn Cook! I will never forget any of those teachings & do my best to continue to live for Christ & share the truth with others as well to honor you & my mother! I know how important that was for you dad! ❤️ ROMANS 6:8 “Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him.” 🙌❤️🙏

“ I love you so much papa. I'm so glad I got to spend almost everyday of my childhood with you and got the chance to be so close to you. You taught me a lot about Jesus, and how to draw, carve, sing, garden, and so much more. I know you were already so proud of me, but I promise I will continue to make you proud. I already miss you so much but I know I'll see you again. Love, your Lulu <3

Dad, I am going to miss you so much, however I know you and mom are happy and with Jesus. I know you will be watching over us- please dad we need your protection. Thank you so much for bringing me into the world to be your first born, and your daughter. Thank you also for instilling in me God's word and Jesus. I strive daily to live for him and more so than ever, and I promise you I WILL MAKE YOU PROUD and share God's word everywhere with everyone. I will miss our talks on the phone and the scriptures you share but I will devote myself to reading them everyday. I love you dad please give mom a huge big hug for me. Until I see ya again I will speak openly my thoughts to you and mom, and seek God daily while doing my very best to keep my faith. Love you so very, very much, and looking forward to the day we meet again.

So sorry that I am just now finding out about Evelyn...and today, Glenn as well. These folks were special in my life and the life of my family during the late 80s and throughout the 90s when we served at HHBC together. I'm so sad that they are no longer with us on this earth, but rejoicing with the family that they are HOME with Jesus. I love the Cook family and have prayed for you all often. Y'all have been through so much...yet your faith is strong. Evelyn was such a sweet, precious lady and Glenn demonstrated his love and friendship to me on more than one occasion...once coming to my home on Candler's Mountain and putting new brakes on my car. I offered to pay him, but he would not accept it. To the Cook family...keep loving...keep trusting...keep believing, and the God of all comforts will see you through this latest trial. Lean on Him!
