Gloria Jean Taylor
Easley, South Carolina

Gloria Jean Taylor, age 84, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, June 4, 2026, at Baptist Easley Hospital.

Born on August 29, 1941, in Greenville County, South Carolina, Jean was the cherished daughter of the late Jones E. Taylor and Rosa Lee Farmer Taylor. A lifelong and devoted member of Glenwood Baptist Church in Easley, she lived a life marked by faith, compassion, and service to others. Jean had a special place in her heart for those in need and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone facing hardship.

She dearly loved her pets and found great joy in their companionship. An enthusiastic supporter of both Clemson Tigers football and Easley Green Wave football, Jean rarely missed an opportunity to cheer on her favorite teams. In her spare time, she enjoyed crocheting, a talent she used not only for enjoyment but also as a way to serve others. With a generous spirit, she lovingly created handmade items for the homeless, sharing warmth, comfort, and kindness through every stitch. Jean's caring nature and selfless devotion to others will be remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Survivors include her brother, Fred Taylor (Teresa) of Mountain Rest, SC; sister, Rosemary Taylor Wicker of Greenville, SC; nieces, Andrea Driggers, Kelli Boxbeger, Leigh Wicker, and Tillia Prucha; great-nieces and great-nephews, Malarie Driggers, Al Prucha, and Mary Ella Prucha; and furry friend, Jaz.

In addition to her parents, Jean was predeceased by her brother, Bruce Taylor, and grandmother, Pearl Farmer.

The family would like to express their heartfelt gratitude for the loving and compassionate care shown to Jean by her caregivers, especially Jennifer, whose kindness and dedication brought great comfort to her and her family.
