

Gregory Ryan Black

January 13, 1978 - January 31, 2019

Gregory Ryan Black
Easley, South Carolina

Gregory Ryan Black, 41, passed away on Thursday, January 31, 2019 at his home. Ryan is the son of Rhonda Black of Easley and the late Greg A. Black.

He is survived by his brother, Trenton Black of Easley, maternal grandparents; James and Betty Breazeale of Easley, two nieces who were the light of his life Rylee Ann Black of Piedmont and Kielyn Isabella Riddle of Liberty. Ryan was predeceased by a brother Travis A. Black, his father Greg Black and paternal grandparents Robert and Geneva Black.

Ryan was an actor at Sweet Dreams Scarehouse in Easley and evolved the character "Makutu". He loved his family and many friends. Ryan was a 'goof' who could make anyone laugh and people loved his company.

A graveside memorial will be held Saturday February 9th at 2 pm at Rock Springs Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the Black family.

“ Ryan will be missed terribly by many people. On the darkest of days Ryan could lift your spirit with one of his well-known catchphrases. He teased me relentlessly when I went into law enforcement and thoroughly enjoyed called me a pig. We had fun with that. Thank you, Ryan, for always being a friend to us. Hanging out in the parking lots with us and making memories that we'd not soon forget. Love you, my friend.
