“ He was my "Uncle Barry White". Because he had a deep resonating voice, we shared an inside joke that he sounded like Barry White when I spoke with him on the phone, so from way back he was my Uncle Barry White. He was the cool, suave and debonair uncle. I had the good fortune of speaking with him before he went on to his resting place. Love you uncle; you're in good company with your other siblings who have waited to embrace you. Continue to watch over us left behind, until we meet again. Much Love, Nettie

To all of my Cousins please accept my deepest condolences. I am glad to be old enough to have known my Uncle Harvey. He was always so funny and kind. Well dressed and cool. Even though I didn't see him often I looked forward to his genuine and sincere joy each time we met. During conversations he was always interested engaged and present. He invited me to SC every chance we met admonishing that I was working too hard in NY & to come sit on his porch and "slow down". I wish I had taken the time to spend with my elder before God called him home. My prayers are with you all for comfort strength and peace that passes all understanding. While another pillar has been removed from us I praise the lord daily that our foundation was made strong and by HIS Will our durable bonds of love will continue to sustain us. Take care of each other. I love you all. -Rene Seaberry
