

Heidi May

March 10, 1979 - December 3, 2025

Heidi May

Liberty, South Carolina

Heidi May, age 46, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, at St. Francis Downtown Hospital in Greenville.

Born on March 10, 1979, in Greenville County, South Carolina, Heidi was the cherished daughter of the late Bo and Lisa Gillespie. She had a deep and genuine love for children, and her free-spirited, childlike heart made her a joy to be around. Heidi adored all things sparkling, especially glitter, and admired the timeless beauty of Marilyn Monroe. She held the Scriptures close to her heart and lived with a willingness to help anyone in need. Above all, Heidi loved her son, Carter, dearly; he was the light of her life and her greatest joy.

Heidi is survived by her siblings, Kristy Seay (James), Darryl Gillespie (Jessica), Nate Clukey, and Joanna Colbath; nieces and nephews, Kale Seay (Parris), Aiken Seay, Raelyn Seay, Aiden, Liam, Josie, and Sophia; and close friends, Julie Rule, Ashley Gill, Christopher Vega, and Bobbi Billingsley.

In addition to her parents, Heidi was predeceased by her son, Carter Adams, and her biological mother, Jackie Harwood.

The family will hold a memorial service that is being planned and will be announced at a later date.

Mountain View Funeral Home is serving the May family.

Tribute Wall

“ 5 files added to the tribute wall

Kristy Seay - December 06, 2025 at 10:28 PM

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Kristy Seay - December 06, 2025 at 10:16 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Patricia conner - December 06, 2025 at 05:53 PM

Oh heidi we can take every space the world dont know .i know ur at Peace fly high heidi love you girl with all the heels,glamour will never forget dayisinn pillow case dress you wore that!! Patricia your heart!!@

Patricia Cryer Conner - December 07, 2025 at 02:03 AM

“ I am so sorry I remember her from school she was always sweet

Leona Magaha - December 06, 2025 at 05:38 PM

*“ Heidi you will be forever missed. I'll always cherish the good times we had and all the laughter you blessed me with. Rest in peace my beautiful friend and hug Carter real tight for me! Love you girl.
Melissa*

Melissa Caldwell-Smith - December 06, 2025 at 04:31 PM

PC

“ Me and Heidi had always had a great time together we were there for eachother and she lived with me for 5 years and her spirit will never die Julie did a good job writing about Heidi that was who she was.Heidi was known everywhere she made a statement that no one will forget her.I hate she had to go at a young age.I know she is at peace and shes with Carter.She will be missed so much by me and others.I love you Heidi fly high🕊️☐

Patricia conner - December 06, 2025 at 04:30 PM

PC

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Patricia conner - December 06, 2025 at 04:24 PM

JU

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Julie - December 06, 2025 at 10:09 AM

DS

“ DALE And CINDY STEWART lit a candle in memory of Heidi May

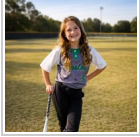

DALE and CINDY STEWART - December 05, 2025 at 06:18 PM

“ 7 files added to the tribute wall

Kristy Seay - December 05, 2025 at 04:13 PM

“ Oh Heidi May. A name known by many. So many memories I could list but we would be here all day. You lived life on your level and never regretted anything you did. The world won't be the same and I feel like I should hear my phone ring any minute with you asking for a dominos pizza delivery with jalapeños lol. I could see Jesus face now as you pranced up there in some high heels and glitter on your face. Until we met again. Fly high

Kristy Seay - December 05, 2025 at 03:59 PM

MC

I'm so sorry for your loss or should I say our loss. If you need anything girl just call me please. I'll be praying for you and your family

Melissa Caldwell-Smith - December 06, 2025 at 04:34 PM

JR

“ 6 files added to the tribute wall

JULIE RULE - December 05, 2025 at 03:36 PM

JR

“ I thought maybe I would wake up today and the past 36 hours would be a dream. But reality is that it is real. I will never understand why we have had to endure so much loss in the past 4 1/2 years as we have. I am so sick and tired of burying people and losing loved ones.

Heidi and I may have not always seen eye to eye. But we both knew we would be there when we needed to be.

Heidi was the kind of woman people remembered without even trying.

Not because she was loud or demanding attention, but because everything about her shimmered a little — the laugh that came quick and bright, the way she'd stop mid-conversation just to point out a cute dog across the street, the way she always managed to turn an ordinary day into something worth smiling about.

She carried kindness like some people carry perfume — trying to leave a soft trace of it everywhere she went. If someone was hurting, she felt it.

Her humor, a mix of quick wit and gentle teasing, could pull a laugh out of the grumpiest person in the room.

She loved all creatures, big and small. Cats, dogs, birds — if it breathed, she cared for it. She had a heart that opened wide, and animals always seemed to sense it first.

Her style was a story all its own.

Marilyn Monroe lipstick — bold, bright, impossible to ignore.

High heels that clicked like confidence on every floor.

Glitter sprinkled somewhere on her outfit more often than not, because life was simply better with a little sparkle. And her hair?

Always new. A fresh color, a fresh cut, a fresh way to reinvent herself. She never stayed the same, and that was part of the magic.

Music flowed through her like a second heartbeat. Old songs, new songs, gospel, pop, anything with a rhythm. She danced through life the way some people walk — naturally, freely, like she was always in tune with something bigger.

And she was. She loved Jesus with a quiet certainty, trusting Him through the storms and thanking Him in the sunshine. Her faith wasn't loud, but it was steady — her anchor, her compass, the light she followed.

She was unique, beautifully different in a world that tries to make everyone the same.

A rare blend of softness and shine.

A woman who lived boldly, loved deeply, and believed faithfully.

A one-of-a-kind soul whose story will always sparkle — just like she did.

But beneath all the sparkle and color was her deepest treasure: her son. (Carter)

He was her pride, her joy, the center of every prayer and every dream. She loved him fiercely, endlessly, in a way that needed no explanation.

You will never find another soul like Heidi. She fought until the end and now her happiness as is loud and bolder than ever. I know that from the look in her eyes as I watched her take her last breath yesterday. She was back where she belonged with Jesus, Carter, Momma and Daddy.

Fly high Miss Heidi May you will forever be missed. 💔

Credit goes to Kristy Seay

CW

Jackie you described her perfectly!! Heidi was definitely one of a kind!! She will be missed!!

casey watson - December 05, 2025 at 09:58 PM

CW

I totally meant JULIE

casey watson - December 05, 2025 at 09:59 PM

MC

I love you Casey Watson

Melissa Caldwell-Smith - December 06, 2025 at 04:35 PM

P(

“ *Heidi you were truly one-of-a-kind! Im so grateful that I had the opportunity to know you and share in your "sparkle and shine" I know you and Carter are flying high on a cloud. You lived by the words of Cody Johnson...
"If you got a chance, take it, take it while you got a chance
If you got a dream, chase it, 'cause a dream won't chase you back
If you're gonna love somebody
Hold 'em as long and as strong and as close as you can
'Til you can't"*

Patricia McClary (PBall) - December 05, 2025 at 12:50 PM

AD

“ I'm so thankful I got to see you those few weeks ago and the other night at the hospital. Never a dull moment around you...thanks for making those moments SPARKLE. Until we meet again, love you!

Ashley Dillard - December 05, 2025 at 12:09 PM

PB

“ Heidi was a strong woman that lived life to the fullest. She is now with her son Carter that she loved dearly. RIP HEIDI she will truly be missed and loved.

Pamela Bryant - December 05, 2025 at 11:56 AM